WEDNESDAY MORNING, OCT. 16, 1861

John Conness' Letter.

We copy a letter from John Conness, late democratic Union candidate for Governor, in California. It has the ring of the true patriotic metal. He says that he would be for sustaining the government by a vigorous effort, if there was not a man in California who agreed with him; that those who are not in favor of supporting the government in its present struggle, are traitors, and deserve the traitors' due. He will not associate with traitors, disunionists or secessionists.

We thus learn why the Advertiser was anxious to defeat Conness, and why its sympathies were with the politicians in California, who are running off to join the confederate army.

How a Patriotic Democrat Talks

There is a party in the State of New York, which, while it professes to be democratic, talks of peace, and by that means, endeavors to give "aid and comfort to the enemy." At a Convention of this party Hon. Lyman Tremain was nominated as a candidate for Attorney General. He has declined the nomination. In that declination he says, that before the war he used his influence for peace; but the South closed all door for compromises by an appeal to arms. He says that a combination of rebels exists, more formidable than the country ever witnessed, and more wicked in purpose than any which has been formed since the time Cataline headed the conspiracy against Rome. The object of the conspiracy is to break up the best government of earth. Country, institutions, Union, national fame, honor, every thing in short, dear to us as patriots, are threatened with destruction. In this hour of peril the country calls on all true and loyal sons to put down rebellion. He declares Secession to be abominable political heresy; that it is the duty of all good citizens to put forth all energies to overcome it; that everything calculated to divide our citizens should be avoided.

He says, bearing in mind that acts committed in time of war from necessity and self preservation, are not likely to ripen into precedents for times of peace, we should regard with toleration all things done by the constituted authorities with an honest purpose to uphold the authority of the Government and put down rebellion. Though their strict legality may be questionable, let us treat the legal point as Mr. Jefferson advised the people to regard his assumptions of doubtful power in the purchase of Louisiana, with prudent silence.

He declares we cannot initiate negotiations for peace unless we are willing to recognize the pretensions of the rebels to divide the Union. The rebellion must be crushed, for Republican institutions fall, and with them perish Liberty and Democracy. He closed as follows:

"Entertaining these general views, and being quite willing personally to seen [illegible] temporary suspension of partisan strifes and contests in this crisis, I am reluctantly compelled to believe, as I look over the proceedings of the Convention, and review other acts of our prominent representative men, that differences exist between myself and those who nominated me, and that on this single war question my views are not in harmony with theirs. I hope and trust that ere long these differences may disappear. With these convictions, while I tender to the Convention and to all its members my sincere thanks for all the honor they have conferred on me, I am constrained to decline the nomination for Attorney General."

☞ Clancey's New York Leader reports the arrest of the agents of the rebels in New York, and the discovery of a carrier pigeon communication from that city with Richmond. A pigeon was shot by a rifleman, and under the bird's wing was an important dispatch on the way South. A shed on Long Island was used as the starting point for these pigeons.

Delusion and Treason

Editor Oregonian:—

In continuing our remarks upon the provision in the constitution in relation to the freedom of the press—

But we must remember that that article was adopted in behalf of loyal citizens of this government, to guard them in the right to express [illegible] to examine freely the [illegible] of the [illegible] without danger of punishment under some sedition law of Congress. Now there is a wide difference between using the press to bring an administration, as the representative of a political party, into dispute and to use it for the destruction of the government of the United States. In that case the liberty is understood to be for the good of the government and the protection of the Constitution against a real or supposed corrupt administration or party [illegible] for the destruction of the government and the constitution and the success of rebellion. In the one case the government is clearly in duty bound to protect; in the other to punish. And is it not ridiculous as well as unlawful and unchristian for anything to claim protection under the government it is trying to destroy? Imagine a more provoking and ridiculous spectacle than a son assailing his parent, vowing his destruction, saying he ought to be killed, and at the same time claiming the old man's protection, and saying what he pleases and in attempting to kill him! Who would not say, that is a badly arranged family? The son should forfeit his inheritance and his fathers' protection, and suffer severe chastisement at the hands of his parent. Yes, sir, such presses should be dealt with in a severe manner, and we are fully prepared to say, in a manner befitting a press guilty of treason. The constitution of the United States, Article 3d, section 3d, defines treason thus: "Treason against the United States shall consist only in levying war against them, or in adhering to their enemies, giving them aid and comfort." Now a press cannot bear arms, but it is evident that the press under consideration are as much at war with this government as such can be. They adhere to give aid and comfort to the enemy, as effectually as anything without arms, legs and heart can. The charge of treason then against all such establishments as the Advertiser, and the Corvallis Union, is sustained, and if there is no propriety in hanging a press, then let it be suspended.—As a warning to the deluded of our unfortunate country, I lay down this rule, which will apply to all governments: "Whenever an individual uses his influence to destroy a government, he forfeits the right to protection under that government, and such government may in self defence, exert its power to destroy that individual." JESSE A. APPLEGATE.

[COMMUNICATED.]

The Gold Dust Question

Editor Oregonian:

I notice a communication in the Times of the 15th, signed "E. W. Tracy," who appears to be deeply interested in the price of gold dust. I do not object to his buying dust at $14 or $15 per ounce, but do most emphatically object to some of his statements, which are calculated to mislead the public as to the true value of Oro Fino dust. As to Mr. Agrell's merits as an assayer I know nothing of them, but this much I do know, that when Mr. Tracy says none of his assays have netted the depositor over $15 per ounce he states that which is incorrect.

I had thirteen ounces of Oro Fino dust assayed by Mr. Agrell, Sept 29th, which netted me—after paying $2 50 for assaying and discount on bar two per cent—$205 29, or, in other words, $15 79 per ounce, and my advice to persons coming from the mines would be to have their dust assayed instead of selling it at $14 75 or $15 per ounce to speculators in dust. NEZ PERCES.

Portland, Oct 15th 1861.

The above was handed here by a responsible person.—Ed.

The Emigration.—M. Crawford, Esq., of the Overland emigrant escort, arrived here on Monday night. He seems to have stood his hard service well—the first in going over the Butterfield route to the States last winter—and since in coming over the emigration road from the Missouri river to Oregon. The escort remain [illegible] behind to bring up the last company. Mr. Crawford believes that there will be a large emigration the coming year—of a good class of citizens—union men—who will be induced to come from the difficulties of the times at home, and by the gold and other prospects here. Come on—

Uncle Sam has land enough to give us all a farm.

General Shields has declined the appointment of Brigadier General, having removed from California to Mexico, to recruit his failing health.

Letter From John Conness

The following letter from John Conness to the editor of the Marysville Democrat appeared in that paper on the [illegible].

Georgetown, Oct 31, 1861

George C. Gorham, Esq.—My Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your letter of September [illegible], in which you call my attention to certain rumors in the public prints to the effect that I am endeavoring to bring about a reconciliation among the leaders of the two Democratic wings. You [illegible] to enlighten my friends as to my position, and to say whether or not there is any foundation for such rumors, and whether or not you would advise your old Democratic friends to associate themselves politically upon any terms whatever with those who were active and leading supporters of John R. McConnell at the last election.

I confess that your letter and inquiries surprise me very much. I [illegible] any man who pays attention to public affairs can fail to understand my position in regard to parties, or in regard to the questions to which these matters directly refer, that of loyalty to the Government.

Those "statements" are made by uninformed or idle persons, for sensation purposes, or for the meaner purpose of injuring me. Were I not convinced of your friendship for myself, as well as of your devotion to the cause of the Union, I would not respond to the interrogations made. But lest my silence on the subject should now mislead any one I will frankly tell you how I stand. If every man in California were against the Union and against trying the power of the government to sustain itself, I would seek some other place of abode. My opinions do not grow out of the influence of my neighbors, but are the result of my love of country, and my estimate of its value.

I have not associated, and will not knowingly associate myself with men who are secessionists, disunionists, or traitors, nor will I advise others to do so. Treason is as foul a crime now as it was in the days of Benedict Arnold, and West Point was not worth more than Manassas is now. Any opposition to our present [illegible] is treason able, [illegible] and ought to be punished by banishment from the State or incarceration in prison. Upon the terms of Union I can have political association, and upon none other. I care not whether my associates come from one party or another, so long as they are true upon one vital point. No party can now be useful except to the extent to which they contribute to this great cause. To the Democratic party as Buchanan made it I am opposed. To the Democratic party as Douglas would reform it, I am firmly attached and devoted; but my attachment and devotion goes no further than the extent to which it can be made useful to the universal cause of civil liberty. You will perceive that with me the Union is above party. It is a crime now to raise party above country, or to consider personal interests, pending the greatest danger to all we have as a people that is worth preserving. That there are partisans base enough to do so we know. Many of them show more talent for getting office than patriotism or a taste for war, but these things will be no matter how much you and I regret them.

Attempts to make political parties by specific agreements, and division of spoils, will always fail, and are only made by narrow and bad men. Parties must grow out of current necessities and great causes, as well as continue to serve them, or they cannot continue to exist.

To conclude—however others may be—I have but one desire, which is that this Government may be more firmly established in the fear and love of our people, that its prosperity may be continued, and that it may be securely transmitted to those who are to succeed us. I remain, &c., JOHN CONNESS.

Another Political Arrest.—Mr. A. McMasters, editor of the Freeman's Appeal, late Freeman's Journal, has been arrested and imprisoned in Fort Lafayette, on account of his persistent opposition to the Administration.—Advertiser.

That assertion is not true. McMasters was arrested and imprisoned on account of his persistence in publishing treasonable articles. He was expelled from the Freeman's Journal for doing this, and then commenced the publication of a new paper to carry on his infamous practices—the Freeman's Appeal.

We venture to say, however, that the Appeal has published nothing more treasonable than the following, which appeared in the Portland Advertiser of Thursday last. Let it be read and be read by those who doubt that we have traitors among us:

CITY.

Syrian Wheat Meal.—Mr M B Burke, of Polk county has cultivated Syrian wheat—a small quantity of which he procured from the Patent office. It is a heavy, flinty wheat, and yields large crops. It does not make good flour, but it makes a fine meal which very much resembles but is superior to corn meal. We have had a fair trial of this article and would recommend the cultivation of the wheat to a small extent for the purpose of using it in the form of wheat meal.

Sails To-day.—The steamer Cole will sail this evening at four o'clock for San Francisco.

Mr. Stephenson has been progressing finely in making the road going south from this city. Persons who have subscribed for this work may be assured that their money has been properly expended.

Drowned.—The Steward of the steamer Carrie, John Robinson, was drowned last evening, in the Willamette river near the mouth. He accidentally fell overboard and was not seen afterwards, though a half an hour's search was made.

By Last Night's Stage.

Late Eastern News

Jefferson City, Sept 27th.—General Fremont and Staff have just arrived. He is accompanied by a detachment of his body guard and several companies of various regiments. He was received at the depot by Brigadier General Thomas L Price.

Gallipolis, (Ohio,) October 2d.—The expedition planned by J. K. Guthrie of the First Kentucky Regiment and sent out under Lieut Col Engot and Col. Pratt, has returned. They encountered the enemy at Chapmansville under Col J Sutler and Davis of Green Briar, and literally routed them. The enemy lost between fifty and sixty killed, our loss was four killed.

Colonel Mulligan's loss was thirty killed and thirty wounded. The rebel loss in killed and wounded was from one to two thousand. Our cavalry could do nothing for want of arms. We had only fifteen hundred effective men fighting.

Washington, Oct. 2. The defiant attitude of the rebels hereabouts has been abandoned. They are now acting on the defensive. They are manifestly continually armed, fearing an assault from some quarter where they are most assailable. They cannot execute their programme of crossing the river, and fear an attack on their own flank.

Jefferson City, Oct 2.—Since Gen Fremont's arrival here, confidence in the Federal army has greatly increased and it is believed before the expiration of the month, he will drive the rebels out of Missouri.

St. Louis, (Republican) Oct. 3. A letter from New Orleans says a fleet of 70 sail was coming up the Balize to attack the city, (Doubtful,) and that McCulloch had called for fifteen regiments of troops.

San Francisco, Oct 8th.—A letter from China says a privateer is fitting out at Shanghae. The steamer Saginaw hurried up, and will no doubt take the schooner.

The Washington County Fair was to take place on yesterday and to-day. Our friends there have had bad weather. Fairs should not be held in October.

On the 7th Oct., Oregon apples were selling in San Francisco, at from 2 to 6 cents; pears, at from 3 to [illegible] cents.

The "Egypt" of Illinois is true to the Union. John Logan, member of Congress, says that he and others sent a messenger to Richmond, to ask if the Confederates would entertain a compromise. They said they would not if furnished a blank sheet of paper." Logan says there "is no way to bring the secessionists to their senses but to whip them."

We see it stated that Col. Dryer was in bad health at the latest dates from Honolulu. Letters from his family are silent on the subject, from which we suppose his illness was not serious.

Portland, May 16 1861 ly

The Destiny of Our Country.—"Fellow citizens," said Daniel Webster, on the laying of the corner stone of the addition of the Capitol at Washington, July 4th, 1851, "take courage; be of good cheer; we shall come to no such ignoble end. We shall live and not die. During the period allotted to our several lives we shall continue to rejoice on the return of this anniversary. The ill omened hounds of fanaticism will be hushed; the ghastly spectres of Secession and Disunion will disappear, and the enemies of UNITED CONSTITUTIONAL LIBERTY, if their hatred cannot be appeased, may prepare to have their eyeballs seared as they behold the steady flight of the American eagle, on his burnished wings for years to come."

What's the Use?—I dare say Alexander the Great was somewhat staggered in his plans of conquest by Parmenio's way of putting things. "After you have conquered Persia, what will you do?" "Then I shall conquer India." "After you have conquered India, what will you do?" "Conquer Scythia." "After you have conquered Scythia, what will you do?" "Sit down and rest." "Well," said Parmenio to the conqueror, "why not sit down and rest now?"

Legal Notice.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Multnomah County. A. M. A. Blanchet, Complainant, vs. Oswald Travaillot, Defendant. (In Chancery).

TO OSWALD TRAVAILLOT, Defendant: You are hereby notified that A. M. A. Blanchet has this day filed in my office his bill of complaint and commenced a suit against you, in which he claims that on the tenth day of June, A. D. eighteen hundred and fifty-seven, you made and delivered to him a certain promissory note for the sum of six hundred dollars, payable ten months after date, with interest at the rate of two per cent. per month, and at the same time made, acknowledged and delivered a certain mortgage deed upon lots numbered three and four in block number three, in Couch's claim or addition to the City of Portland, in the county aforesaid, as security for the payment of said note; and complainant prays for a decree of foreclosure and for the sale of the said mortgaged premises to pay the amount due upon said mortgage, to-wit: The sum of six hundred dollars and interest as aforesaid since the twentieth of September, A. D. eighteen hundred and fifty-nine, and for a judgment against you for any balance which may remain unpaid after the application of the proceeds of the sale of said property for the payment of said debt; and you are further notified that unless you appear in the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Multnomah on the second Monday of November, A. D. 1861, and then and there answer the said bill of complaint, the same will be taken as confessed, and the prayer thereof will be granted by the Court.

{L. S.} In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of this Court this 12th day of August, A. D. 1861.

SHERRICK NORRIS, Clerk.

ESTABLISHED IN [illegible] FOR THE PERMANENT cure of all Chronic and Private Diseases, and the SUPPRESSION OF QUACKERY. Attending and Resident Physician, L. J. CZAPKAY, M. D., Late in the Hungarian Revolutionary War; Chief Physician to the 20th Regiment of Honveds; Chief Surgeon to the Military Hospital of Pesth, Hungary; the late Lecturer on Diseases of the Genito-Urinary Organs, and Diseases of Women and Children, and Honorary Member of the Philadelphia College of Medicine.

Particular attention paid to the treatment of diseases peculiar to Women and Children.

Office Hours—From 9 A. M. to 9 P. M.

Communications strictly confidential. Permanent cure guaranteed, or no pay. Consultations, by letter or otherwise, FREE.

Address, DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco.

Of all diseases, the first great cause,
Springs from neglect of Nature's laws.

To the Afflicted:

Suffer not when a cure is guaranteed in all stages of secret diseases—Self-Abuse, Nervous Debility, Syphilis in all its stages, Strictures, Gleet, Gravel, Diabetes, diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Mercurial Rheumatism, Scrofula, Pains in the Bones and Ankles, diseases of the Lungs, Throat, Nose and Eyes, Ulcers upon the Body or Limbs, Cancers, Dropsy, Epileptic Fits, St. Vitus Dance—and all diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs—such as Nervous Trembling, Loss of Memory, Loss of Power, General Weakness, Dimness of Vision, with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes, Loss of Sight, Wakefulness, Dyspepsia, Liver Disease, Eruptions upon the Face, Pains in the Back and Head, Female Irregularities—and all improper discharges of both sexes. It matters not from what cause the disease originated, however long standing or obstinate the case, recovery is certain, and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment, even after the disease has baffled the skill of eminent physicians, and resisted all their means of cure. The medicines prescribed are pleasant, without odor, entirely vegetable, causing no sickness, and free from mercury or balsam. During fifteen years of practice in Europe, the Atlantic States and California, I have rescued from the jaws of death many thousands, who, in the last stages of the above-mentioned diseases, had been given up to die by their physicians, which warrants me in promising to the afflicted, who may place themselves under my care, a speedy and permanent cure. Private diseases are the greatest enemies to health, as they are the first cause of consumption, scrofula, and many other diseases, and should be a terror to the human family. A permanent cure is scarcely ever effected—a majority of cases falling into the hands of incompetent persons, who not only fail to cure the disease, but ruin the constitution, filling the system with mercury, which, with the disease, hastens the sufferer into a rapid consumption. But should the disease and the treatment not cause death speedily, and the victim marries, the disease is entailed upon the children, who are born with feeble constitutions and the current of life corrupted by a virus which betrays itself in scrofula, tetter, ulcers, eruptions and other affections of the skin, eyes, throat and lungs, entailing upon them a brief existence of suffering, and consigning them to an early grave.

Self-abuse is another formidable enemy to health, for nothing else in the dread catalogue of human diseases causes so destructive a drain upon the system—drawing its thousands of victims through a few years of suffering down to an untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system, rapidly wastes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, disqualifies for marriage, society, business, and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind, predisposed to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself. With the fullest confidence I assure the unfortunate victims of self-abuse that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected, and with the abandonment of ruinous practices my patients can be restored to robust, vigorous health.

Remarkable Instance of Medical Relief.

Below we publish the certificates of three of the sufferers, from the brink of disease, who, having recovered their former health, and impelled by gratitude, [illegible] their cases and remedial agent, and their [illegible] authenticated by a Notary Public. Their [illegible] imperiously command their publicity, [illegible] their perusal to the attention of all afflicted.

Certificate.—The undersigned, desirous [illegible] those who may be unfortunate enough to be [illegible] flicted, where a permanent relief of their [illegible] obtained, feels it his duty to thus publicly [illegible] sincere gratitude to Dr. L. J. Czapkay, for the [illegible] recovery of his health. Borne down by the [illegible] symptoms incident to the vicious practice of [illegible] the passion in youth; depressed in body and [illegible] to perform even the most trifling duty imposed [illegible] dinary avocations of life, I sought the advice of [illegible] sicians, who at first regarded my disease as of [illegible] portance—but, alas! after a few weeks, and in [illegible] stances months, of their treatment, I found, to my [illegible] able horror, that instead of relief, my symptoms [illegible] more alarming in their torture, and being told [illegible] my disease being principally confined to the [illegible] would be of little consequence. I despaired of [illegible] my health, strength and energy; and as a last [illegible] with but a faint hope, called upon Dr. Czapkay, [illegible] examining my case, prescribed some medicine [illegible] instantly relieved me of the dull pain and [illegible] head. Encouraged by the result, I resolved to [illegible] immediately under his care, and by a strict [illegible] his directions and advice, my head became [illegible] ideas collected, the constant pain in my back and [illegible] weakness of my limbs, the nervous reaction [illegible] body on the slightest alarm or excitement, the [illegible] and evil forebodings, the self-distrust and want [illegible] in others, the incapability to study, and want of [illegible] the frightful, exciting, and at times pleasurable [illegible] night, followed by involuntary discharges, have [illegible] peared; and in fact, in two months after having [illegible] the doctor, I felt as if inspired by a new life. [illegible] but a short time ago I contemplated to end [illegible] hand. With the view to guard the unfortunate [illegible] into the snares of incompetent quacks, I deem [illegible] offer this testimony to the merit and skill of [illegible] and recommend him to all who may stand in [illegible] cal advice, being assured by my own experience [illegible] under his care a radical and permanent cure [illegible]

THE DESTINY OF OUR COUNTRY.—"Fellow citizens," said Daniel Webster, on the laying of the corner stone of the addition of the Capitol at Washington, July 4th, 1851, "take courage; be of good cheer; we shall come to no such ignoble end. We shall live and not die. During the period allotted to our several lives we shall continue to rejoice on the return of this anniversary. The ill omened hounds of fanaticism will be hushed; the ghastly spectres of Secession and Disunion will disappear, and the enemies of UNITED CONSTITUTIONAL LIBERTY, if their hatred cannot be appeased, may prepare to have their eyeballs seared as they behold the steady flight of the American eagle, on his burnished wings for years to come."

WHAT'S THE USE?—I dare say Alexander the Great was somewhat staggered in his plans of conquest by Parmenio's way of putting things. "After you have conquered Persia, what will you do?" "Then I shall conquer India." "After you have conquered India, what will you do?" "Conquer Scythia." "After you have conquered Scythia, what will you do?" "Sit down and rest." "Well," said Parmenio to the conqueror, "why not sit down and rest now?"

Legal Notice.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Multnomah County. A. M. A. Blanchet, Complainant, vs. Oswald Travaillot, Defendant. In Chancery.

TO OSWALD TRAVAILLOT, Defendant: You are hereby notified that A. M. A. Blanchet has this day filed in my office his bill of complaint, and commenced a suit against you, in which he claims that on the tenth day of June, A. D. eighteen hundred and fifty-seven, you made and delivered to him a certain promissory note for the sum of six hundred dollars, payable six months after date, with interest at the rate of two per cent. per month, and at the same time made, acknowledged and delivered a certain mortgage deed upon lots numbered three and four in block number three, in Couch's claim addition to the City of Portland, in the county aforesaid, as security for the payment of said note; and complainant prays for a decree of foreclosure and for the sale of the said mortgaged premises to pay the amount due upon said mortgage, to-wit: The sum of six hundred dollars and interest as aforesaid since the twentieth of September, A. D. eighteen hundred and fifty-nine, and for a judgment against you for any balance which may remain unpaid after the application of the proceeds of the sale of said property for the payment of said debt; and you are further notified that unless you appear in the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Multnomah on the second Monday of November, A. D. 1861, and then and there answer the said bill of complaint, the same will be taken as confessed, and the prayer thereof will be granted by the Court.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of this Court this 12th day of August, A. D. 1861.

Address, DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco.

Of all diseases the first great cause.
Springs from neglect of Nature's laws.

To the Afflicted:

Suffer not when a cure is guaranteed in all stages of secret disease—Self-Abuse, Nervous Debility, Syphilis in all its stages, Strictures, Gleet, Gravel, Diabetes, diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Mercurial Rheumatism, Scrofula, Pains in the Bones and Ankles, diseases of the Lungs, Throat, Nose and Eyes, Ulcers upon the Body or Limbs, Cancers, Dropsy, Epileptic Fits, St. Vitus Dance—and all diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs—such as Nervous Trembling, Loss of Memory, Loss of Power, General Weakness, Dimness of Vision, with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes, Loss of Sight, Wakefulness, Dyspepsia, Liver Disease, Eruptions upon the Face, Pains in the Back and Head, Female Irregularities—and all improper discharges of both sexes. It matters not from what cause the disease originated, however long standing or obstinate the case, recovery is certain, and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment, even after the disease has baffled the skill of eminent physicians and resisted all their means of cure. The medicines prescribed are pleasant, without odor, entirely vegetable, causing no sickness, and free from mercury or balsam. During twenty years of practice in Europe, the Atlantic States and California, I have rescued from the jaws of death many thousands who, in the last stages of the above-mentioned diseases, had been given up to die by their physicians, which warrants me in promising to the afflicted, who may place themselves under my care, a speedy and permanent cure. Private diseases are the greatest enemies to health, as they are the first cause of consumption, scrofula, and many other diseases, and should be a terror to the human family. A permanent cure is scarcely ever effected—a majority of cases falling into the hands of incompetent persons, who not only fail to cure the disease, but ruin the constitution, filling the system with mercury, which, with the disease, hastens the sufferer into a rapid consumption. But should the disease and the treatment not cause death speedily, and the victim marries, the disease is entailed upon the children, who are born with feeble constitutions and the current of life corrupted by a virus which betrays itself in scrofula, tetter, ulcers, eruptions and other affections of the skin, eyes, throat and lungs, entailing upon them a brief existence of suffering, and consigning them to an early grave.

About two years ago [illegible] causes unknown to me, was seized with [illegible] which, owing to my inability to [illegible] quent upon a thorough medical treatment [illegible] agement which I met with on attempting [illegible] such (I was then led to believe) as to defy [illegible] physician. I was frequently, while in [illegible] thrown down to the ground without the [illegible] and although insensible to the agonies [illegible] miseries of my life, and seen [illegible] would render assistance or shelter me [illegible] mies who sought to prolong the existence [illegible] While in this state, and having [illegible] tasted the sweets of life. Bence more [illegible] seeking aid of a physician, and, by [illegible] upon Dr. L. J. Czapkay. I told him of [illegible] and of my inability to reward him for his [illegible] of which, however, he at once undertook [illegible] the blessing of God, I [illegible] once more [illegible] health. Unable to reward him for the [illegible] present, and yet conscious of my indebt [illegible] due to myself and all afflicted, to make [illegible] order that those in need of medical adv [illegible] cian in whom every confidence can be placed [illegible]
